

Frederick J. McCool, new lecturer at the University of Pittsburgh's graduate school of public health, will assist the faculty in establishing a science writing program.

JUL 22 1963 PG
Former Newsmen Takes Pitt Post

Frederick J. McCool, public relations director for Ohio State University's Research Foundation at Columbus, has been appointed lecturer at the University of Pittsburgh's Graduate School of Public Health.

A former employe of the Associated Press and International News Service bureaus in Pittsburgh, he will assist the faculty in establishing a science writing program.

Born at Vandergrift, McCool, 47, was INS bureau manager at Columbus when he took the Ohio State job in 1955.

Science Writer
Given Public Health Post

PITT
WEBS

JUL 24 1963

Frederick J. McCool has been appointed lecturer at the University's Graduate School of Public Health, where he will assist the faculty in establishing a science writing program.

McCool also will serve a joint appointment with the Public Relations Division.

McCool, a veteran of 18 years in journalism and eight years in science writing and editing, comes to the University from Ohio State University, where he directed public relations and publicity for their Research Foundation.

Feature Writer and Editor

He has worked for both the Associated Press and the International News Service bureaus in Pittsburgh. He was feature writer and sports editor for the Universe Bulletin, the diocesan newspaper in Cleveland, Ohio, from 1945 to 1948. From 1948 to 1951, he was associate editor of the Catholic Times in Columbus, Ohio.

McCool was the INS Bureau Manager in Columbus from 1951 to 1955, when he assumed his position at Ohio State.